

5 Part Genetic Alchemy Webinar with Cyndi Silva

A Synthesis of Evolutionary Wisdom, Human Design, Gene Keys and Epigenetics

Integrating the Universal Perspectives Within

Enrollment Includes:

- Your Personal Genetic Profile
- Live Webinar Access
- Audio/Visual Replays
- MP3's downloads
- Relevant PDF handouts for each module
- Discounted Price on Personal Readings

Each Module will be held live and consecutively on 5 Saturdays starting January 6th at 10:00 am Pacific Time Zone. Sessions are 90 minutes with a good portion dedicated to Q & A. This is an interactive experience and your questions and insights on the material being delivered is welcome. Discounted pricing for readings will be available to participants during the series for those who wish to go deeper into their personal imprinting.

Upon completion of this course, you will have been introduced to your personal design, or know it more intimately, and be confident in analyzing the basics of genetic profile for others. You will also have more aware and intimate connection with the essential self that guides your curiosity and attraction. This experience is a recalibration which aligns you with the destiny unfolding within.

"A truly comprehensive and deeply relevant profile of the life "specifications" you set forth to use as the source code for your life. Because Cyndi combines the wisdom and precision of the I'Ching, Astrology, Spiritual Body, Human Design and the Gene Keys, with her powerful intuitive capacity, you leave the session with both answers to life-long questions about your inner life and inspired perspective of how to take advantage of the life you have designed. I recommend enthusiastically that you give this blessing and insight to yourself."
