

Profile – Your Life's Costume

There are 12 Profiles in the Human Design system, which can be regarded as a basic character pattern that frames a person's life. The Profile indicates the purpose and theme in life and is directly related to the incarnation in this life.

1/3 Investigating Martyr:

Looks deeply into their specialized interest and experientially tries things out, discoverers.

1/4 Investigating Opportunist:

Looks deeply into specialized interest and externalizes to friends.

2/4 Hermit Opportunist:

Shy or Bold but always open to the right opportunity through their network of friends.

2/5 Hermit Heretic:

Shy or Bold, an attractive Saviour to some, a rebel to others, here to be a natural and gifted person.

3/5 Martyr Heretic:

A conscious adventurer who learns by trial and error and has to cope with the projections of others.

3/6 Martyr Role Model:

Lives 3 different stages of life, learning by trial and error as they evolve to be themselves.

4/1 Opportunistic Investigator:

Fixed in their nature, they are not here to change, but to be a bridge between others.

4/6 Opportunistic Role Model:

3 life Stages, friendly networkers who long for perfection and authenticity.

5/1 Heretic Investigator:

Transpersonal, here to connect to their allies in this life, have to be practical in handling projection.

5/2 Heretic Hermit:

Naturally enjoys their time alone, practical, heretical and self-motivated.

6/2 Role Model Hermit:

3 life stages, tries to live perfection while being self-motivated leaders here to live their uniqueness.

6/3 Role Model Martyr:

3 life stages, through trial and error their lives can be chaotic and adventurous but never boring.