

CLAVERISM COMES TO THE GOLDEN WEST

WESTERN STATES DISTRICT HISTORY

Claverism came to the Golden West because of the dedication and perseverance of three Claver Men. Brothers Julius Prattt, George Theophile and Armand Duvernay were former members of Councils in New Orleans, Louisiana before migrating to Los Angeles, California. They felt a need for Fraternal Brotherhood in their new homeland and petitioned the Knights of Peter Claver National office for a Council in the Golden West. Their dream became a reality on April 20, 1941 when Queen of Angels Council No. 87 was chartered by Supreme Knight Alphonse P. Auguste. The Council was domiciled at Saint Odilia Roman Catholic Church (formerly known as Saint Odilia's Negro National Church). The Council was chartered with fifteen members with Brother Julius Pratt serving as the first Grand Knight. Queen of Angels Court No. 87 was chartered on October 25, 1942 by Supreme Lady A. R. Aubry with sixteen chartered members; Lady Barbara Davis was the first Grand lady.

The second Council Chartered in the west was Golden West Council No. 95 on January 12, 1947, at Saint Patrick Catholic Church in Oakland, California. Second Court Chartered was Saint Patricia Court No. 95 on April 27, 1947 in Oakland, California. There have been thirty four councils and thirty seven Courts Chartered in the Golden West since that time. Councils and Courts are located in the following cities; Compton, East Palo Alto, Los Angeles, Oakland, Pasadena, Richmond, San Bernardino, Sacramento, San Diego and San Francisco, California; Phoenix, Arizona; Las Vegas, Nevada; Portland, Oregon; and Seattle, Washington.

The first Knights of Peter Claver National Convention held in the Golden West was at Los Angeles, California in August of 1948, under the leadership of Supreme Knight J. Roland Prejean and Supreme Lady A. R. Aubry. Convention meetings were held in Saint Patricks' and Holy Cross Church halls. During this convention the Supreme General Assembly established Gilbert Faustina Assembly No. 13 of Los Angeles, California, the first Fourth Degree Assembly in the West. William Knox Sr. Assembly No. 15 of Oakland, California was established in April 1954, and Immaculate Conception Assembly No. 38 was established in Seattle Washington in 1991. The Supreme General Chapter established Ellen Marie Jackson Chapter No. 13 and Rose L. Casanave Chapter No. 15 in February 1981; Our Mother of Africa Chapter No. 38 was established on August 21, 2004.

The Junior Daughter Court No. 87 was chartered in June 1947 and Junior Knight Branch No. 87 was chartered in August 1948 at Los Angeles, California. There have been fourteen Junior Branches and twenty-two Junior Courts Chartered in the Golden West.
