

WHY TRANSITIONAL HOUSING FOR EX-OFFENDERS?

Entrusted Connections Ministry (ECM) routinely ministers at Prince William County Adult Detention Center in Manassas, Virginia to the Women In New Direction (WIND). While there offenders often indicate they have no place to go upon release and no support system to help them re-adjust after being incarcerated. God revealed a need within the Prince William County Community and in accordance with Hebrews 13:16 “But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased”, ECM established Entrusted Connections Life House (ECLH). ECM has a heart for Ex-Offenders and ECLH's primary purpose is to provide transitional housing support in a Christian environment for Ex-Offenders requiring assistance after incarceration.

If you share ECM's heart and passion in providing hope and transitional housing support to Ex-Offenders, please consider making a one time or monthly donation to ECLH at ec-ministry.com. Your donation will go towards ECLH and qualify for a tax deduction. Thank you in advance for your support of ECLH and know that it will make a difference in Ex-Offenders lives.

OUR MISSION

Entrusted Connections Life House (ECLH) offers hope, grace and support for persons seeking new beginnings that are exiting penal systems and other institutions of correction and restoration.

WHAT IS ECLH

The ECLH (Entrusted Connection Life House) is an entity under the Entrusted Connections Ministry a not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing transitional housing in a Christian environment for Ex-Offenders recently released from incarceration. Ex-Offenders can stay in our program for up to two years. Throughout their stay, we provide temporary housing, mentoring, life skills training, counseling, transitional assistance, liaison to substance abuse recovery programs and volunteer management. We cover the most significant barriers that recently paroled men and women face. We also assist with job placement to ensure each member becomes productive citizens.

ECLH OBJECTIVES

- To provide a safe environment for ECLH residents exiting the penal systems and other institutions of correction and restoration.
- To equip ECLH residents with life skills necessary for successful transitions.
- To ascertain, develop and mature ECLH life balance skills.
- To design a matriculation process to meet ECLH resident goals.
- To provide community resources such as job training/job search assistance to become productive members of the community.
