December 2024

"Best. Christmas. Ever!"

When I was about 10 years old, I had the BEST Christmas ever! I was obsessed with model trains, music, and anything technology-related. Of course, 1986 tech was nothing compared to what we have today!! That year Santa actually came early, and delivered our presents while we were at a neighbor's Christmas party on Christmas eve. My faith in "the big guy" was renewed and I was enthralled with the magic of it all! Then the big day came on Christmas morning as we got to unwrap our presents, which overflowed around the tree and spilled out all over the living room. The biggest box I have ever seen waited for me! But my parents made me open that one last of all. But in the mean time, I got lots of new toys, remote controlled cars, games, clothes, a clock radio with alarm (latest tech!) a boombox with a DOUBLE tape deck and detachable speakers (for surround sound!) and a new bike. Then finally as I finished opening all the smaller presents, my dad and stepmom said the time had arrived for me to open the largest box I had ever seen. I ripped into the paper to reveal the most amazing model train set I had ever seen. It was an overlapping loop layout set on Styrofoam mountains with a built-in tunnel. The track already came with a foam trackbed for smooth riding, and there was a shiny new freight engine and several cars. There were also several model buildings and toy cars to build a town in the middle of the valley formed by the foam mountains. It was the most incredible toy I think I have ever received even to this day. That made 1986 the best Christmas ever for me! Years later as I reflect on that abundance of toys, I can only assume that my middle-class parents racked up a good amount of credit card debt to provide my sister and I such a lavish amount of presents. For them, it likely was still the best Christmas ever for them to get to see our reactions, but it came with a side of high-interest debt! Carrie and I have provided some lavish spreads of gifts for our kids over the years, as well, though never to that extent. We have racked up some debt doing so, as well, unfortunately. As our kids have gotten older and we have matured ourselves, their gifts usually include more money for school trips, etc. We have tried to keep our family's focus off of the material aspects of the season and more focused on the most lavish gift of all, Jesus, himself.

Maybe this year as we journey toward the manger, we could do the same in our hearts. Perhaps we could take time to say extra prayers of gratitude for all God has given us rather than extra time online shopping for that "perfect" gift. God calls us to focus on him and how we can live generously with those in need in response to his greatest gift, so perhaps we could be obedient to his calling and make 2024 the best Christmas ever for someone truly in need. Consider how God might be calling you to a simpler gift collection for you and other who have plenty, so that you can bless those who don't have enough. Blessings!

John 3:16

Scott Cummings, Pastor

New Sermon Series: The Best Christmas Ever! Christmas comes every year, so what could make this year different? Maybe we can look at the season in a different light this year. In the book, the play, and the most recent movie, "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever", we meet a cast of characters, including a group of siblings that totally disrupt the way the Christmas pageant has gone for the last 75 years. In the end, those "hooligans" help the whole town see Christmas in a totally new and more meaningful way. That will be our goal in this series for the season of Advent (4 Sundays before Christmas Eve) and we'll focus on rediscovering the hope, peace, joy, and love of Christmas to make this the "Best. Christmas. Ever!" Pastor Scott is also challenging the congregation to make 89 invitations (one per covenant partner in the church) to a church event to people outside of Peace during the month of December, so invite someone to join us for this series that runs December 1st—24th!

Mark your calendar for Christmas Events! Christmas season is here! We start a new sermon series for Advent (four Sundays before Christmas) on Sunday, December 1st. December Prayer Calendar

On this page below, you'll find a Prayer Calendar. Put it where you'll see it and take a few minutes each day to pray for the people listed on that day. At the end of the month, you will have prayed for the entire congregation at Peace, and they will have prayed for you, too! How do I use this calendar? Look at the date you want to start. Active Peace members are listed each day, but please pray for our inactive members and frequent guests and you can also add your own family members and friends. You can determine how much time you want to pray, or you can pray several times during the day. It's between you and the Lord. You will be blessed for your time and attention to the prayer concerns! Submit your prayer requests by phone or email to the church office or to Pastor Scott or on Sundays using the green "Prayers and Praises" cards during worship. All prayers and praises submitted are included in the bulletin insert and Weekly Update email message.
