

DDD

Dad Deep Dive

Podcast

Margin: Making The Most of Time

Tierce Green
Episode 2
Synopsis

The supply and demand for our time seems hopelessly out of balance. How do we gain the wisdom to identify what matters most, and then, how do we recalibrate to it? What is the meaning of "Margin"? Scripture can help guide us as to where to start, deciding what matters most, and in asking ourselves..Is it wise?

deeper reflections

You can utilize this additional resource as a reference to help you better understand creating margin in your life.

Margin_Handout

- What can you do to recalibrate what matters most to you?

*Consider what good things you can say no to .. to make room for the best things.
(.. Is it wise in light of...)*

- What benefits do you think you would see in your life making room for the best things?

- Read Ephesians 5:15-17

- Do you feel like you need to create more balance in your life? Is it a constant struggle?

The definition of "Margin" is "The amount available beyond what is necessary."

- What is most important to you? List your top 5

- What things do consider necessary in your life? List 3 things

Tierce Green is a speaker, writer, and consultant. He is on the teaching team of a 6-volume collection of content for men called 33 The Series. 33 is a journey to authentic manhood as modeled by Jesus in his 33 years on earth. 33 has reached over a million men around the world. Tierce is also the Director of the Authentic Manhood Initiative which is building a global network of men reaching men with the timeless principles of biblical manhood. Learn more about Tierce and his mission at tiercegreen.com