

Synopsis

Hal Bowman discusses now more than ever, kids need strong, positive, loving, supportive, influential men in their lives. It's not just about being the DAD for your own kids, but instead, being a DAD for everyone, everywhere, every day.

deeper reflections

- Can you identify your core values as a man and Dad?
- What things can help you in your transformation from Father to Dad? Do you have support to help with this change?
- In the world of technology and social media, how has the role of men and their importance changed based on your life experience?
- Do you believe "toxic masculinity" still exists? Why? Do you recognize this in any areas of your life?
