Glossy's Notes

Again, on Saturday we were spoilt with another brilliant day for footy. The grounds in great nick, weather was perfect and for those at the luncheon, they were fortunate to have the great Andrew Bogut in the house. On top of that we were in for two great contests, in the Reserves 4th v 5th and the seniors 1st v 3rd.

The Scoobs was a tightly fought contest with both defences on top and goals as hard to find as a hair on Dave Caspars head. It was a battle to the end with Edi Asp finishing off better in front of goal. So we've played everyone with 9 rounds completed and what we know is our best will compete. Next Saturday we get a chance to knock off one of the top dogs. Round 1 was a great contest between these two sides, we expect no different next week. A different result would be nice.

The seniors was a great contest with the ball zipping from end to end in a high speed game. We had chances to put them away in the third but didn't bury them when on top, so quality sides keep coming. We were fortunate to be in front when the siren sounded, importantly locking away 4 points. On top of the ladder we should be as happy as pigs in you know what, but something has burned in the guts since Easter Sunday. Next Saturday is our chance for redemption.

Thought of the week: If you forget the joke about the boomerang, will it come back to you!
