Women Lunch & Learn

In Pest Control

December 8th, 2020, was our final meeting for the year. Thanks to Andrea Hancock of Mattress Safe INC, for sponsoring CPCO of GA's Women in Pest Control meeting. We met at Hudson Grille in Sandy Springs for lunch and had a festive time together, with our U.G.L.Y. Christmas Sweaters. Mattress Safe was all about choosing the "winner" for the Best Christmas Sweater. [An acronym for "Ultimately Gorgeous Like You"]

Andrea Hancock and Ashley Llewellyn decided on two Ladies, Kristin Glore, Peachtree Pest Control and Dianna Lueke, American Income Life Insurance (AIL). Both strutted their stuff with their ensemble, from head to toe. Each received a CPCO of GA embroidered winter-white vest. Kristin, Chair of Women In Pest Control, already had one of our vests, so she graciously gave it to Julie Fogg, Vesperis. In the spirit of Christmas giving, Mattress Safe also made elegant ornaments for ALL who attended. [Picture and information at right] The tag statement went along with Ms Gayle's presentation: "3 Ways to Grow your Confidence Today". As Ms Gayle joined in, she surprised us ALL in attendance to an Exclusive offer:

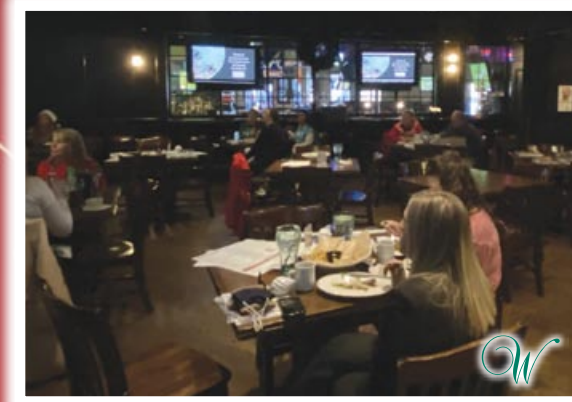

"Boost Your Confidence in 6 weeks", starting January 11th, 2021. WHAT AN INVESTMENT TO YOURSELF!

Those in attendance included: Dianna Lueke of American Income Life Insurance, Britney Bailey of Excel Federal Credit Union, Andrea Hancock and Ashley Llewellyn of Mattress Safe Inc, Rachel Williams of McGriff Insurance Services, Kristin Glore of Peachtree Pest Control, Cindy Jones and Marty Jones of Prestige Pest Control, Sarah Francis and Jennie Hollis of Team Pest USA, Julie Fogg of Vesperis, Maria Angela Collins and (Glenda Lehmborg via Face-Time) of CPCO of GA.

Ladies, whether you are a registered technician, Certified Operator, an administrative employee, manager, or owner we invite you to join us for the upcoming quarterly events we have planned. You will enjoy the friendship of others and take away valuable information to continue to improve in your personal and professional life.

The most beautiful thing you can wear is Confidence
