Devotional Thoughts

Luke 19:1–10

1. When Jesus enters Jericho on the final leg of his journey to Jerusalem, He doesn't go to the home of the most religious, or nicest, or most respected person in town. Instead, He seeks out the man who was the biggest crook in town, a man who was a traitor, a collaborator with the occupying Roman forces, a man who was probably the most hated man in town. Is that the kind of person His church "seeks out" today?
2. Meeting Jesus changed Zacchaeus's life. A man who got rich by cheating his neighbors now makes restitution – four times over – and gives half of his wealth to the poor, a complete turnaround. How has Jesus changed your life?

Plastic Bag Cutting

We will be cutting bags on
April 11 and 25th.

Easter Egg Hunt

There will again be an Easter Egg Hunt for the children on Easter morning following the Flower Committee's Easter Brunch. Tri-Skills will again be helping us fill the Easter Eggs. The only thing that has changed is that all candies will be individually packaged. There are many candies available, but the one candy I have not seen are individual packets of jelly beans. If you are out shopping and come across some packaged jelly beans or other Easter candy, please consider picking them up and bringing them to church. In addition to filling Easter eggs for the children we would like to provide some gift bags to the nursing homes we visit. We can reimburse you for the cost. Candy can be given to Janine Coley or myself.

Back by Popular Demand

We are placing our third order for How to Eat Your Bible! This book has been such a blessing to those who have read it that we have sold out twice. An order form is on the table in the narthex and it is available a discounted rate of only $10. If you would like a copy for yourself or to give as a gift, please sign up by Sunday, April 10th. Payment will be collected after books are received.

Praying for First Congregational Church

Each week several members of the congregation gather to pray for one of the ministries of the church and one of the members of the congregation. We will be gathering at 3:00 pm on Thursdays.
