

For an Exciting Summer, Enjoy Korea Now!

What are your plans for the summer vacation? If you're looking for something memorable in your life, come and enjoy Korea! You can also earn three credits for a thrilling three weeks!

Hannam University's Korean Studies Summer Program (KSSP) offers students an exciting opportunity to learn all about Korea through a variety of cultural experiences during the summer. This program aims to guide each participant in a total experience with the richness and dynamism of Korean culture in its historical and contemporary social contexts. A wide array of lectures, hands-on learning activities, and field trips help participants explore and experience Korea first hand.

Special Features

Lectures

An eclectic mix of lectures on Korean language, society, history, economy, education, K-pop, cinema, culture, and intercultural communication by prominent lecturers.

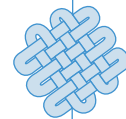

Field Trips

Unique weekly field trips to Jeonju, Busan, Seoul (DMZ, War Memorial Museum), Everland and other cultural sites.

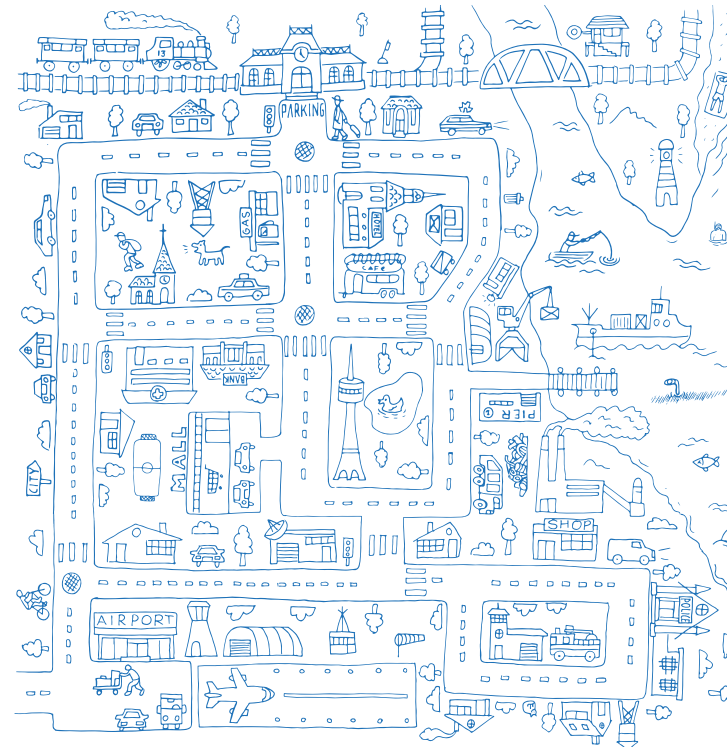

Academic Credits

Participants can earn 3 credits for the three-week program.
