1. To avoid being sent home all retreat rules must be followed and obeyed.
2. All Delegates must come to the retreat with a Bible (NOT bible on phones), notebook and a pen.
3. Christian values and principles must be observed in conduct and speech during the retreat both at the lodging and conference venue at all times.
4. No male delegate is allowed to go into or enter the female floor for any reason.
5. No female delegate is allowed to go into or enter the male floor for any reason.
6. Leaving the retreat venue without permission from the youth leaders is highly prohibited.
7. All delegates must keep their clothes on at all times.
8. Clothing that is offensive or advertises alcoholic beverages, drinking establishments; tobacco, violence, or non-gospel band is highly prohibited.
9. Clothing worn at camp shall be in accordance with modest Christian attire. The camp organizers can and will decide if the clothing is inappropriate. Delegate maybe asked to change his or her clothes if they are deemed inappropriate. These items include spaghetti straps, mid-riff/belly shirts, backless and strapless top, ripped/tattered jeans and cheerleading shorts. A rule of thumb is that all shirts should come below your fingertips when your arms are resting at your side. Knickers, Skirts and dresses must be knee-length.
10. No delegate is allowed or permitted to be in the lodging areas during any meeting sessions.
11. Visitation (including parents) is limited to the evening service, to encourage full participation and concentration from all delegates.
12. The use of Phone (including for bible use) and other related gadgets is not permitted in any session or meetings. For emergency cases ONLY Phone numbers for retreat organizers/or pastor in-charge will be given out on the first day of the retreat.
