Jim's Journal

Here is a word from Dennis Pethers, who will be speaking at our Spiritual Awakening Conference on March 8-9 at Main Street Baptist Church. Dennis is an International Evangelist and a leader of the Rooftop Movement, calling for a movement of God across our world through prayer.

Beyond the walls

by Dennis Pethers

A question that I have been asked far more times than I can remember is 'how do we reach people outside of church?'

There are three really important things that I always say in response to this, often-asked, question:

1. This is the wrong question to be asking. Let's think for a moment about the phrase 'outside of church'. When we use this phrase we think of people outside of the walls of our building but we often forget that it is us who built the walls. There is only an 'outside' because we created an 'inside'. Most people who don't come to church are not aware that they don't come! They are just living their lives and are no more UNchurched than we are UNbingoed! The days when everybody was in some sense 'churched' are long gone and we must face this new reality.

2. Consequently, it is more helpful to view the situation from a different perspective. Rather than thinking of us as 'inside' and them (whatever that means) as 'outside', we could take our example from Jesus: "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (John 1:14 NIV) Jesus came to be among people and he sends each of us to be among the lost people that we come into contact with every day. Most of our lives as Christians is lived beyond the walls that we have built.

3. The question should therefore be "How do I live my life in such a way that the people I am among every day will want to know what (who) it is that is making me the person I am?" This is about how we live as much as what we say and it provides every church with a great opportunity. What about if we spent the time that we are behind the walls that we built equipping, encouraging, and supporting Christians to be able to live effectively among the people they know. That might change everything!!

Here is to changing everything- through the power of Christ.

Following Him,

Jim

Joy in the Mourning Ministry Information Bereavement Care Workshop

Saturday, February 16, 2019

10:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

NKBA office

Learn what bereavement care looks like and how to establish different types of groups at your church.

The workshop will be lead by Dr. Shawn Crisman, Hospice Chaplain and Senior Pastor at Kento-Boo Baptist Church, Florence and Mary Jane Schopp, team member for Kentucky Joy in the Mourning widows' ministry.

Your church group is invited to bring your 1st -6th graders to participate in our Children's Missions Day Event at the MAC. Churches all over the United States will be participating in doing ministry with their kids through this event.

We would like to invite you to allow us to put this event on for you.

The day will start with an opening with singing and a scripture focus.

After the opening, the kids will be divided up in age groups to do 3 different mission projects.

We will come together for lunch (pizza, chips, drinks and dessert).

We will end with a closing to be sure we get the important points.

There is a $5 charge per child and adult to cover the cost of lunch and mission project items.

1 adult for every 5 kids is needed. Your church needs to be signed up by February 11th.

Call Amy Wilhelmus at 859-261-2300 to register.

March 2, 2019—9 AM –2:45 PM

First Baptist Church Cold Spring

Breaking the Silence will feature two main teaching sessions and multiple breakout opportunities led by experienced professionals including Dr. Mike Kalfas, Dr. Eric Johnson, Rachel Gosney, Jon Cyrus, Jean Schumm, and more.

Registration is $15 per person at the KBC website, kybaptist.org/recovery.
