

Boyle County Public Library Resources Guide: For Home School Students and Parents

Find these digital offerings under the “Resources” tab at BoylePubLib.org. Free off-site access is available through the Library’s website with a BCPL library card. Even if your card has fines, you can still access Tutor, Mango, and Biblioboard!

Tutor.com has joined with The Princeton Review to offer on-demand tutoring online.

- Tutors available 2 PM - 11 PM in more than 40 subjects including Math, Science, Social Studies, English, AP® Support, Foreign Languages, and Business.
- Tutoring sessions take place in an easy-to-use online classroom, which runs in your web browser.
- ACT/SAT/PSAT test prep available

Mango Languages’ conversation and film-based resources help you learn over 70 languages (including English) from just about anywhere.

- Free mobile app
- Hand-free learning features
- Oral pronunciation practice
- Film-based resources
- Progress tracking

Boyle County Public Library Resources Guide (Home School Students and Parents: Page 2)

biblioboard

Biblioboard provides 24/7 access to digital research material and the Library’s own digitized archives.

- Free mobile app
- Curated, multimedia collections of primary and secondary research material on numerous subjects
- Collections of independently published eBooks
- Boyle County Public Library’s digitized archives - includes the potential for future expansion with digitized student works.

Additional Services and Programs:

- Teen & Tween Programming: Programs feature different topics each month.
- Book Kits: Call the Library for more information.
- Library Field Trips: Staff and students will get a close-up look at the facility and free resources available to them at the Library.
- Overdrive: 24/7 access to a vast collection of digital media, all of which can be checked out free of charge.
- Meeting Rooms: Available for events, trainings, etc.
- Study Rooms Available

