For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. First Timothy 3:13

In March of this year, we began receiving deacon nominations from the church family. Biblical guidelines for nominations were provided as a guide to help you follow God's word on people to nominate. Seven names were turned in. Myself, Dave Bell, and Hermon Welch (current deacons) began the process of speaking to and reviewing each person according to the process outlined in the Bible and the RVBC Constitution and By-Laws. Some of the seven men were not willing to serve at the time. Others were not able to serve yet, because they have not been church members for at least 2 years per RVBC By-Laws. After much prayer and seeking God's will, Eric Vessels agreed to be a deacon candidate to be presented to the church family for a vote. This was shared with you on July 20th via email and during July 23rd worship services.

Eric will share his testimony on August 6th at 6:00 PM. The church family will vote on August the 13th by secret ballot. This provides ample time to pray about, speak to, and pray with/for Eric.
