And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter." So Paul departed from among them. However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them. Acts 17:32-34

I am currently reading through the book of Acts for my daily time alone with God. My pastor's heart sure has been encouraged and I have needed it. The text above is a great reminder that when we share the word of God and the gospel, some will mock, some will want to hear more, and others will by faith receive. This is how it has always been! As a follower of Jesus, we are not responsible for how someone responds to the gospel but we are responsible for sharing it. As the holidays are upon us and many are celebrating, we have a great opportunity before us to share what Christmas is all about - God sending His own Son to save sinners. Look for creative ways to share the gospel during this time. My prayer is God, help us to be faithful.

Starting November 27th and leading up to Christmas, we are going to start a new sermon series entitled "The Battle of Our Mind and Emotions". The battle is real and everyone will experience it in some form. We will graciously cover topics such as grief, fear, anxiety, depression, and more. Please use this as an opportunity to invite people to church and share hope! I may or may not be the first to say this to you in 2022, but Merry Christmas. All for His Glory - Pastor Chad
