Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them. Luke 2:20

For some reason my heart gravitated to what I wrote in last year's December newsletter.

When we read the full account of the birth of Jesus, one thing continually occurs over and over - worship! Mary, Joseph, Elizabeth (her unborn son), Zechariah, the wise men, shepherds, angels and others are all recorded worshipping and praising God.

As we enter the Christmas season, everyone is not in the same place. Some are enjoying a blessed time in their life while others are hurting physically and/or emotionally. Some are financially struggling while others are lonely. Even so, as a follower of Jesus we can and should worship and praise God in every season. We can praise God for all the things that we have heard and seen through the gift of Jesus and His salvation that is offered to all people.

Whether you are in a blessed season or confused season of life, let's be determined to magnify the Lord continually because He is worthy!

All for His Glory - Pastor Chad
