

Sharon B. Nina, Sales Associate

407.497.5535

Sharon B. Nina is a Business Broker at Premier Business Group, LLC. Sharon owned her own successful catering business for more than 35 years in the Orlando market, which billed an average of almost two million dollars a year. She excelled in daily management, accounting, purchasing, resource planning, development, cost controls, employee training, retail sales and contract negotiations with vendors. As a former business owner, she can offer valuable insight on a full spectrum of business issues.

Sharon also owned a highly targeted retail business for 12 years providing ballroom dance dresses, shoes and accessories. She took it from a start-up to a profitable enterprise and sold that business as well.

Sharon makes a commitment to each client to deliver confidential, personalized service and local expertise backed by the resources of Premier Business Group.