Executive Director's Note

Greetings Everyone! The past month has been filled with great excitement, joy, trials and transitions. We have seen improvement in both our traditional counseling and residential clients, for which we are forever grateful to our Lord and Savior. I want too can play a role in supporting our mission, the chance to meet with me personally for an open discussion. I truly believe that no matter the size or type of giving, it all gives life to the women and children we serve. Again, thank you and FSLR&TP is truly blessed by the amount of support we have and will continue to receive. Glory to God!

Dr. Tracy Gibson, LGSW

Safe House Donation Request

As always Martha's House is working hard to serve women and children victimized by either human trafficking, prostitution or domestic violence. We are currently requesting donations of the following items:

Monetary, Study Bibles, Tissue, Gardening Material, Paper Towels, and Feminine Hygiene Products

Sexual Assault Awareness Month

Awareness Month 2019 marks the 18th anniversary of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Join us in advocating for policies that will extend penalties for sexual assault and funding that will generate more programs to assist survivors. If you would like to become more involved in the fight visit www.nsvrc.org to learn more! #TheySaidNo #EndSexualAssault

Special Note

This month FSLR&TP would like to especially focus on preparing our garden located at our residential care home. If you would like to help or contribute, please contact our admin office for more information.

Martha's House Update

Martha's House is proud to announce that one of our lovely residents as been accepted to attend Calhoun Community College and begins classes at the end of May. Attending college has been a life long dream for her and we are very excited to play a small role in helping making this experience a reality.
