

Women's Center for Personal Development

Transcending Barriers, Transforming Lives"

Annual Evening High Tea 2023

"With your help, the Women's Center for Personal Development will thrive in 2023. The center supports many women and families in the Long Island community in need. Our goal for 2023 is to bolster our programming, bring in more women with identified needs, and to encourage our young people in the community to give back by helping. Your support will create an environment where women can flourish and find the resources they need to succeed. We look forward to continuing to increase our partnerships and expanding to create lasting change and empower women to reach their full potential."
