

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The school has developed a discipline policy within the guidelines of the Department of Education & Early Childhood Development and a Code of Conduct, which is available to all families.

The school should be a happy learning environment that meets the needs of all students. Student discipline is seen as a joint responsibility between parents, teachers, children and the school as a whole.

What we stand for Every student has the right:

- To feel safe
- To belong
- To learn
- To have fun

Our core school values are:

- Care
- Respect
- Commitment
- Responsibility

This school policy is based on the following rights and associated responsibilities:

Rights

to feel safe

to express an opinion, challenge and question in an acceptable manner to work without interference from others to achieve success, learn and reach your potential to feel connected to the school community

Responsibilities

Invictus Maneo- 'We never give up.'

to look to the well-being of yourself and others to take care of all property, your own, the school's and others' to be responsible for your own actions to think for yourself to listen to others to allow others to work uninterrupted to recognise and encourage positive behaviour in myself and others strive to complete quality work at all times accept individual difference in others to be prepared to contribute to the school programs and community

The following school expectations have been developed:

1. Follow your classroom expectations
2. Strive for quality at all times
3. Play safely at all times
4. Play only in designated areas
5. Let others play their games
6. Use acceptable language and behaviour
7. Respect teachers and others
8. Stay within the school grounds at all times.

Consequences of breaches of the Code of Conduct

Any breach of the Code of Conduct and will follow Department of Education & Early Childhood Development policy and guidelines. The following are accepted consequences based on individual needs:

Visit the thinking area for reflection of choices for outside behaviour

Reflection of individual choices made based on supported discussion/s:

What was the problem?

What did you do to try to solve the problem?

Did this work for you? Evaluate.

Plan your next step.

Make sure the plan is clear.

Make a commitment to the plan.

Natural Consequences may include the following:

written or verbal apology

visiting another classroom until a strategy has been identified and put in place removal from an activity until a strategy has been identified and put in place complete work in own time restricted yard play

make good any damage caused by behavioural choices

Referral to Principal

Parent contact and follow up discussion

Suspension may be considered if the severity or the frequency of action warrants it.

This could be either an internal suspension or an external suspension until a strategy and plan has been identified and put in place.

This will be negotiated through parent/principal/student meeting.

* Special needs children will need to be supported in their thinking and assisted with future strategies when they do not meet the expectations of the yard or classroom.
