

Curriculum for year 2023

- I. What is the Difference Between Responsibility and Accountability?
  - a) Can a person be accountable and not responsible or vice versa?
  - b) The four “p’s” of accountability; people, purpose, performance, and progression.
  - c) Responsibility- every choice has a consequence.
  - d) What if there aren’t any consequences?
  - e) Learning how to take responsibility for your actions.
Possible book choices: “The Ant and the Grasshopper”, “I Just Forgot” (Merce Mayer)

- II. Gratitude and Serving Others
  - a) What does it mean to be grateful?
  - b) Can we learn to see the good even in bad situations?
  - c) Thankful is not a word but an attitude.
  - d) What does it mean to serve others? It takes humility to serve others.
Possible book choices: “The Giving Tree”, “Otis Gives Thanks”, “Gratitude is my Superpower.”

- III. Love vs. Enabling
  - a) What is Love? What is enabling?
  - b) Enabling hurts others and ourselves (include discussion about nutrition)
  - c) Love tells the truth in kindness.
  - d) Love is an action.
Possible book choices: “Don’t Forget to Remember” by Ellie Holcomb, “Love Is” by Leah Vis.

- IV. Respect Yourself
  - a) What is Respect?
  - b) You can’t believe in yourself if you can’t respect yourself.
  - c) Respecting your body, your mind and your choices.
  - d) Giving respect commands respect.
Possible book choices: “The Lion Inside” by Rachel Bright, “I Choose to be Respectful” by Elizabeth Estrada, “Taste Your Words” by Bonnie Clark