

Becker Welcomes Christopher Leddy

Former V.P and General Counsel to an IT consulting/staffing firm brings vast employment law experience to the firm

NEW YORK, August 13, 2018 – Becker LLC today announced that Christopher Leddy has joined the firm. Chris comes to the firm after serving as Vice President/General Counsel for an IT consulting/staffing firm that placed consultants across the globe. While there, he oversaw all legal, employment and risk management for the company, including creating and implementing employee compensation and commission plans; onboarding, offboarding and other employment-related compliance; and drafting all private and public contracts in the U.S., Canada and the EU.

“We are excited to welcome Chris to the firm and our staffing industry practice group,” said Marty Borosko, managing member of the firm and Co-Chair of the staffing industry practice group. “As Vice President and General Counsel to an IT staffing firm, Chris guided company leadership through the same important strategic and operational business and legal decisions that our staffing industry clients face every day. There is no doubt that our clients will benefit from his experience.”

Chris will focus his practice on employment law compliance, human resources training, compensation and commission plans, and employment law related litigation as well as contract negotiations and drafting.

“Joining Becker is a tremendous opportunity for me,” said Chris. “The firm is recognized for having one of the largest legal practices in the staffing industry and Marty and his team are known as thought leaders in the industry. I believe my experience in the industry will add value to the team and most importantly to the firm’s staffing industry clients.”
