WITHDRAWN

Happy New Year everyone!

We have an important life update that we'd like to share with all of you. First of all, what a journey! We have spent the last year growing as a group, as individuals, and as artists. We couldn't be more proud of the accomplishments and development we have all taken away from our time together. Taking 4th place this past year in St. Louis was an especially great punctuation mark within the greater story we have been able to tell as a quartet.

That being said, after a lot of careful consideration we have decided that this is a stopping point for Windsor. This decision was made with a lot of love for each other and for our craft. Maintaining a group like this, where a sound and product relies so much on time together to perfect it, was becoming difficult in this season of life. With growing families, competing schedules, long distance, and careers, we feel putting an end to Windsor's journey is the best decision for us. There is so much love between us that this has not been an easy decision.

We wholeheartedly thank you all for your support and encouragement during our time together! We are looking forward to supporting each others' new endeavors and hope you'll be a part of some new journeys we each take.

We have a few more shows on the books this year and we couldn't be happier to finish out our time together performing for these audiences!

We want to thank our coaches... Erin Howden, Randy Loos, Clay Hine, Ruth Ann Parker, Betty Clipman, Tony Derosa, Karen Briedert and Michael Gellert...you all poured into us and we are so grateful.

Finally, we give our biggest thank you to our main coach, Debbie Cleveland (aka, our fifth sister 😊). She isn't just a coach. She's been the ultimate hostess, allowing us to occupy her house for quartet weekends and keeping us fed. She's given us advice personally and professionally. She's helped shape our sets. She's been a mother and a friend. And ultimately, our biggest fan (see her standing and cheering front row in this pic 😊). We wouldn't be Windsor without you!

We love you all and thank you again for all the love and support! Ashley, Mary Sarah, Lexi, Jenny
