One Great Hour of Sharing: Presbyterian Disaster Assistance TODAY

OUT OF CHAOS, HOPE

For over 70 years, Presbyterians in the United States have come together in their support of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. In 2019 alone, we responded to disasters in the Bahamas after Hurricane Dorian, in India after the Kerala flooding, in Syria and Lebanon at the refugee camps, in Peru after the devastating earthquakes and mudslides, and in numerous other places around the globe.

PDA sent 7,354 volunteers, contributing 404,000 hours of labor, and granted $3,559,424 to those in emergency need.

In the past, many members of our FPC congregation were there for the people in New Orleans, Galveston, and the Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange area after the hurricanes at those locations.

We can further support these volunteers with our contributions during the One Great Hour of Sharing today. Since we will be unable to meet in person for Easter Services, please visit our website to give during Easter week at www.fpcconroe.org. Please help. Thanks!

Disinfecting the Building

We are taking precautions to insure that anyone who enters First Presbyterian Church is in a safe environment. Our cleaning crew has been working diligently to disinfect the building in its entirety. If you need to enter the church, please enter through the FPC side of the building. This helps us keep all areas clean and helps us know how many individuals are in the building at a time, so that we are not in violation of the law. If you encounter a room that is marked off with yellow tape, please do not enter it. We thank you for your help with this.
