Mission Ministry News

Jean Ball, FPC Mission Coordinator for Family Promise, has received recognition on behalf of FPC for providing 18 years of shelter, meals, transportation and independence-training assistance to Family Promise clients (most of whom are homeless). FPC is one of the five churches in the Conroe-Woodlands area that has remained as a partner with Family Promise since its inception.

Another FPC member, Marilyn Kasmiersky, has been appointed as the new Executive Director of Family Promise of Montgomery County. Additionally, our Dr. Ken Davis, former Family Promise board member, served as Master of Ceremonies at the successful Annual Family Promise Luncheon on April 23rd. Way to go, FPC!

Note to the Congregation

We recently elected our 2019 Nominating Committee, whose responsibility is to nominate church officers for the Class of 2022. This class of officers will include 6 elders, 1 or 2 Youth Elders, and 1 Trustee. Elders are needed to serve on the following Sessional committees: Administration, Building & Grounds, Discipleship, Membership, Mission, Worship and the Clerk of Session. If you know individuals you feel would be good candidates to serve as Elder, Youth Elder, or Trustee, please submit their names to our committee members or fill out the form at the Welcome Center desk and place it in the box, identifying the Committee(s) for which they would be best suited. Your prayerful help in this effort will be gratefully appreciated. 2019 Nominating Committee: Anne Elms, David Henderson, Sharon Walker, Liz Kessler, Paula Shepherd, Rusty Smith and Kim White.
