OUR SERVICES

Beginner or professional, Lamb Studios offers a variety of services to suit your needs and schedule.

PRIVATE COACHING

Master the techniques of singing and acting with one-on-one private instruction

SINGING

Vocal technique, vocal warm-ups, strengthening exercises and expansion of vocal range. Other topics include breath management and control, vowel placement, ear training, intonation work, diction, rhythm, basic music theory and building your book.

ACTING

Monologue work, concentration exercises, text analysis, character development, objective, action, obstacle and personalization work, full-body physicality, sense memory, acting while singing and theater techniques to prepare for performances.

AUDITION PREPARATION

Big audition/call-back coming up? From school, local, college prep to Broadway, make sure you are prepared! You can choose to schedule coachings on an as-need basis to prepare for auditions and to supplement rehearsals. Coachings make it easier to work around a busy schedule that doesn't allow for regular weekly lessons.

TALENT EVALUATION ASSESSMENTS (TEA)

Do you know what steps you or your child should take to develop the skills needed to get to the next level?

Guidance about what steps to take in order to grow as a performer. Save time and resources by avoiding running in all the wrong directions and receive a careful, affirming and honest opinion about your or your child's talent. The TEA includes a 10-minute pre-evaluation meeting, a 30-40-minute evaluation of singing and/or acting talent and skill assessment and a 10-minute wrap-up. A written talent evaluation/assessment will be emailed within a few days.

CAREER CONSULTATIONS

Receive guidance on your or your child's performing arts career

Ongoing advice, opinions, and suggestions about your or your child's creative development and the steps that should be taken to further one's talent. This is ideal if you or your child auditions locally, regionally or nationally. Guidance in performing arts talent development for both the amateur and professional child or adult.
