I work at a mid sized TV station. We just had a visit from the FCC along with two people with badges. I didn't get close enough to see what agency they were with.

We've been told to prepare for all of our programming to be pre-empted from 8 AM wednesday for up to 72 hours.

They told my boss he can be held criminally liable if he doesn't allow their feed to air.

He was almost in tears saying "I've never seen anything like this after 30 years in this business."

They scared the shit out of him and the district manager.

As a UK man living in a mostly gun-less society answer me this America. Why do civilians need guns like this?

Our founders "needed" guns so we wouldn't have to care what England thought ever again.
